IN TODAY'S GOSPEL

In today's Gospel Jesus comments on two hot topics of discussion – two tragic incidents that had recently occurred. The first of these concerned the killing of some Galileans while they were offering sacrifice, probably in the Jerusalem temple at Passover. Pilate was notorious for his brutal attitude towards the Jewish people and the practice of their faith. The second incident was probably a construction accident at the Siloam Reservoir at Jerusalem, resulting in the death of eighteen people.

Sadly, then as now, such random and tragic events were interpreted as divine retribution. People of a religious fundamentalist persuasion often claim God's judgement in a way that is cold, callous and erroneous – be it the terrible outbreak of AIDS in the early 1980s or the attack on the World Trade Centre Towers in New York in 2011. Terrible human tragedies are interpreted to suit people's poor theology.

This has its roots in the Old Testament. In the book of Job, for example, Eliphaz, in a wonderful spirit of self-righteous condemnation, says to poor Job: 'Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished? Where were the upright ever destroyed? As I have observed, those who plough evil and those who sow trouble reap it. At the breath of God they perish...'

Jesus rejected this teaching and sought to correct it. On one occasion, on encountering a blind man he was asked by his disciples, 'Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?' But he immediately corrected this heresy: 'It was not that this man sinned, or his parents...' Jesus taught that good fortune or disaster, blessing or curse, success or failure is no indication of our spiritual state before God because God causes his sun to shine on all of us, the righteous and the unrighteous. Today isn't the time to cast aspersions or accuse or make assumptions about how God thinks or acts because today is the time for repentance. God's mercy and kindness gives us time to repent and change, but one day we will be required to give an account of our lives to the living God.

Lord, grant me the gift of repentance. Help me to refrain from judging others and understand that your mercy shines on us all.

Grateful Thanks

We are very grateful to Fr. Anthony and Bishop Thomas who will both be available for Masses up to Easter.

Welcome to our parish of St. Joseph the Worker for our Sunday liturgy.

First of all thank you to all our parishioners for your prayers and cards (in the region of 70 cards). I am truly grateful for your thoughtfulness and kindness. I hope to return to the parish around about the first week of April depending on my progress. I have a hospital appointment in Essex around the middle of April.

Lent is a very special time. It is the beginning of Spring, as you know. The days are lengthening now and it is a sign that Spring is here. Moses story is the call of Moses, but you have to know a little about Moses. In the first reading Moses has reached manhood and has gone through many experiences. He was called to lead his people out of Egypt through the wilderness into the promised land. On the journey he doubted the action of God when he was told to strike the rock once, he struck it twice. God said because of this he would not lead his people into the land but God showed it to him. One point we need to reflect on is that we are on holy ground because God is everywhere, it means everywhere is holy ground. God is one with his people and he loves deeply all the people especially during Lent.

We need to realise that everyone, all of us, we are all made in the image of God and one with Jesus our Saviour. That is why Jesus says "the only commandment is you must love one another as I have loved you". Today, during Lent, we need to revise one thing within our own understanding of our own faith. Our faith is based on awe. When Moses spoke of fear he meant the wonder of God. Today, when we hear this story, we need to remember who Jesus is. He is the one who gives us wonder. He lets us understand the sacredness of the world and the people in it. "The Father says He loved the world so much that He gave His only Son who would die to heal it and to save it and to bring it home".

In our approach during Lent we are in the season of springtime with love, that I might become more and more aware of the grace of God which is everywhere.

Enjoy your Sunday with your families.

Discussion for families this week.

When we gather in prayer, are we aware of God's presence in our home, in our town and cities, in our world? If we are, then we are on holy ground. How does that affect the way we live our lives? About the choices we make? About our relationship with Jesus?

MISSIO Red Boxes

Please would everyone who has a Red Box leave it at the back of the church on one of the Sundays in March so that I can count its contents and return it. Please make sure your Red Box is clearly marked with your name and address. The Spring 2019 edition of "Mission Today" is available for you to collect from the table in the porch.

If anyone who does not have a Missio Red Box would like one, please speak to me. Missio is the Pope's personal charity and the Church's official charity for overseas mission in the developing world.

Thank you for your support, Clare Barton.

Easter Wishes

Father Leslie wishes each and everyone of you a happy Easter.

Confessions

Remember, in preparation for Easter, there will be a Service of Reconciliation at our Cathedral on Tuesday 9 April at 7.30 p.m. Please use this time of Grace so that we come to Easter renewed in the love of the Risen Lord.

Fr. Leslie Update

Christine and I went to see Fr. Leslie at the nursing home in Littlehampton last Sunday. His only outings at the moment are short walk to the local Costa, which he can just about manage with the aid of a stick. He is making progress, although he is understandably frustrated that it is taking so long to heal. He is having physio, and has a number of exercises that he is doing each day, so he is getting stronger and more mobile, but it is just taking time.

If all goes according to plan he will return to the Presbytery at around the beginning of April but neither he, nor the PPT, are sure about how practical this will be for him. Knowing how independent Fr. Leslie is, he'll want to be up and about but it feels like the healing process will still take quite a bit of time and no-one is sure how mobile he will be on his return. All we know is that we want him back!

Note For Eucharistic Ministers

If you have a Pyx at home which was supplied by the church and you are not currently taking Holy Communion to the Sick, please could you return it as soon as possible as we are in great need and have no spare ones. Thank you.

Repository Sale – this weekend

The Parish Pastoral Team would like to thank parishioners for their generous support for the Repository Sale last weekend. More than £90.00 was raised for Parish funds and in light of this success, we will hold another sale over the weekend of 23/24 March. So please be ready to buy a statue, a Rosary, Easter cards and many other bargains while stocks last! Please spare a few minutes to drop by and review the excellent items we still have for sale.

Please be aware that there will be an opportunity for us to prepare for Easter by attending a Service of Reconciliation at our Cathedral on Tuesday 9 April at 7.30 p.m. Please use this time of grace to, like the prodigal son, "return to our Father having squandered the gifts he has given to us".

Pope on Twitter

Saint Joseph, spouse of the Virgin Mary, watch over the whole Church always, and protect Her in every moment.

How do we not judge, not condemn, and forgive? "Give and it will be given to you": be generous in giving. Not only material alms, but spiritual alms too: spend time with someone in need, visit someone who is sick, offer a smile.

I pray for the victims of the horrible attack against two mosques in #Christchurch, New Zealand. I renew my invitation for prayer and gestures of peace to combat hatred and violence

Prayer reconnects us to God, charity to our neighbor, fasting to ourselves. God, my brothers and sisters, my life: these are the realities that do not end in nothing, and in which we must invest.

Children's corner

Welcome to children's corner.

Please say this prayer together as a family this week.

Dear God, thank you that you provide all our needs. Thank you that we can trust you to turn the small things we give you into something big that can make a huge difference. Help us to be generous with everything we have, just as you are so generous in giving us these things. Amen

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus tells a story about a tree that does not produce fruit. Its owner wants to cut it down, but the gardener asks him to give the tree more time. The gardener promises to give the tree special care so that it can grow fruit soon.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Dear Jesus, you are like the gardener in today's Gospel - patient and caring. Thank you for being patient with me, and for always giving me a second chance when I fail to do good. Amen.
