"The important thing in evangelising is not to effortfully set out to try to convert someone, but to live one's faith as a Catholic attractively. It is important to trust that God is working".

IN TODAY'S GOSPEL

Moral theologians speak of 'sins of omission', by which they mean the failure to act or speak out in a situation, causing those guilty of this offence to fall short of the goodness of God. Our Gospel today provides us with an example. In most modern translations of the Bible this passage is either dropped into the footnotes or placed within brackets to indicate that it did not form part of the original text. It is also missing from the oldest and best manuscripts of the Gospel. In short, this very moving account of Jesus' compassion, mercy and regard for women did not form part of the original Gospel of John. It is hard to figure out why and we can only speculate – perhaps a patriarchal culture and worldview rendered this beautiful incident in Jesus' life too shocking and scandalous, revealing a depth of mercy and forgiveness which was unpalatable. We are grateful that this story, which was probably passed down by means of oral tradition, found its way into the canon of Scripture.

Just as it takes two to tango, it takes two to commit adultery. This is a point worth making because what is interesting if not striking about the case of adultery before us is that the Pharisees haul the poor woman before the Lord to be judged, but her co-adulterer is nowhere to be found. The man's absence from the drama would seem to suggest foul play.

In any event, the scheming Pharisees are looking to catch Jesus out. They have their facts wrong, however, because the law only stipulated stoning if the woman was betrothed and it required, in fact, the stoning of both parties. Their aim is to back the Lord into a corner. If he sanctioned the stoning, he would be in conflict with the Romans who did not allow the Jews to carry out capital punishment. On the other hand, if he came out against the stoning, he would be seen to condone adultery and unsupportive of the law. He permits the stoning to go ahead but only on the basis that he who is without sin throw the first stone! Ashamed, humiliated, exposed, the accusers leave the scene. Full of mercy and kindness, the Lord tells the woman: 'Neither do I condemn you...'

Lord Jesus, you are kind and merciful to all who fall into sin. Teach us to be like you, knowing that there but for God's grace go we.

Retiring Collection

Sunday April 14 Palm Sunday.

The Retiring Collection is your Lenten Offerings taken in your homes during Lent for Catholic Children's Society.

Welcome to our Sunday liturgy today.

We are drawing ever closer to the celebration of the Pascal Mysteries.

I had a phone call from a friend of mine in Florida who had been enjoying an evening of bingo in the church hall with her friend Nancy whom I also knew. She said they had a great evening laughing and joking. When Nancy left to go home, she was hit by a car as she was joining a dual carriageway outside the church and she died shortly afterwards. The priest gave her the Sacrament of the Sick before she died. Apparently, she came to the church an hour earlier to spend an hour before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament before going into the Parrish hall to play bingo. She who had been adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament was now with Him face to face in adoration in heaven.

We never know the day or the hour when we will end our earthly journey. Lent is the season of returning back to the Father in the Sacrament of Confession. A time to prepare to meet our God face to face. Every Saturday in our parishes the Sacrament of Reconciliation is available. Your priest is there often unemployed, waiting to celebrate this Sacrament. It is the priest's task to get you to heaven.

On Tuesday 9 April at 7.30 p.m. in our Cathedral in Brentwood we have a service of Reconciliation where there will be several priests in attendance. This is a God-given time to exercise our humility to come and say sorry and celebrate God's mercy and forgiveness as a community.

In today's Gospel Jesus says to the woman "go away and don't sin again". Jesus expects her to live a life of grace. That is the attitude with which we come to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. However, in weakness we may commit the same sin again but when we come we truly try not to sin again. As we approach Holy Week we pray to the Lord to draw us ever closer to Him. We ask the Blessed Mother to draw us ever closer to her son and when our earthly pilgrimage is over she may lead us into the presence of her son. Let us pray that God will look upon our families with kindness, and keep us close as we enter into your passion, death and Resurrection.

May your Holy Angels watch over us and lead us to the joys of Easter.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pope on Twitter

Through prayer we learn to renounce the idolatry and self-sufficiency of our ego, and to admit we need the Lord and His mercy.

If you are young in years, but feel weak, weary or disillusioned, ask Jesus to renew you. With him, hope never fails.

The Church is young when she receives ever anew the strength born of God's Word, the Eucharist, and the daily presence of Christ and the power of His Spirit in our lives. The Church is young when she shows herself capable of constantly returning to her source Christ is alive! He is our hope, and in a wonderful way he brings youth to our world.

Children's corner

Welcome to children's corner.

Welcome to our children's corner. We invite parents and children to say this prayer together. God of mercy and forgiveness, you ask us to listen to your son, Jesus Christ. Open our ears to hear your word and fill our hearts with your love so that we may change our lives and the lives of others.
Amen

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Some men want to punish a woman for doing something wrong. They ask Jesus what he thinks about this law. Jesus says that if one of them has never done anything wrong, they can punish her. The men walk away, because they know they are sinners too. Jesus lovingly forgives the woman and tells her to go home and not sin any more.

A PRAYER TO SAY

Heavenly Father, thank you for sending Jesus to show us how much you love us. Help us to love our family and friends. Help us to forgive each other lovingly when we upset each other. Amen.
