PARISH NEWS | APRIL 2012

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

CONTINUING POPE BENEDICT'S LETTER ON CHARITY AND TRUTH THE FUNDAMENTALIST INTERPRETATION OF SACRED SCRIPTURE

The attention we have been paying to different aspects of the theme of biblical hermeneutics now enables us to consider a subject which came up a number of times during the Synod: that of the fundamentalist interpretation of sacred Scripture. The Pontifical Biblical Commission, in its document The Interpretation of the Bible in the Church, has laid down some important guidelines. Here I would like especially to deal with approaches which fail to respect the authenticity of the sacred text, but promote subjective and arbitrary interpretations. The "literalism" championed by the fundamentalist approach actually represents a betrayal of both the literal and the spiritual sense, and opens the way to various forms of manipulation, as, for example, by disseminating anti-ecclesial interpretations of the Scriptures. "The basic problem with fundamentalist interpretation is that, refusing to take into account the historical character of biblical revelation, it makes itself incapable of accepting the full truth of the incarnation itself. As regards relationships with God, fundamentalism seeks to escape any closeness of the divine and the human ... for this reason, it tends to treat the biblical text as if it had been dictated word for word by the Spirit. It fails to recognize that the word of God has been formulated in language and expression conditioned by various periods". Christianity, on the other hand, perceives in the words the Word himself, the Logos who displays his mystery through this complexity and the reality of human history. The true response to a fundamentalist approach is "the faith-filled interpretation of sacred Scripture". This manner of interpretation, "practised from antiquity within the Church's Tradition, seeks saving truth for the life of the individual Christian and for the Church. It recognizes the historical value of the biblical tradition. Precisely because of the tradition's value as an historical witness, this reading seeks to discover the living meaning of the sacred Scriptures for the lives of believers today", while not ignoring the human mediation of the inspired text and its literary genres.

Do Remember Lent is a time to return to God with our whole heart. It is a time of grace.

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parish of St. Joseph the Worker

Today is Palm Sunday, the beginning of Holy Week. From ancient times the palm tree, because of its height and graceful trunk, was considered a princely tree and its branches became a symbol of history and were also used for decoration.

Victorious Roman soldiers carried palm branches when parading in Rome, and the palm was given as a victory emblem at public games.

All four gospels describe a "grand entrance" of Jesus into Jerusalem on his final visit there. But only John has the detail about the palm branches – the symbol from which this Sunday has received its popular name.

As far back as the fourth century, Christians in Jerusalem re-enacted this event in the place where it actually happened. They gathered on the Mount of Olives in late afternoon and, carrying palm branches, they went in procession through the gates of the City to the Church of the Resurrection.

The custom of re-enacting Christ's entry into Jerusalem gradually spread to churches around the world. The palm branches were blessed and carried home by the faithful as a symbol of Christ's presence in the place where they lived.

The Holiest week of the year begins today. But the world does not stop. Everything goes on in the regular manner – TV programmes, work.....so if I want this to be a Holy Week, what do I do? I decide.

St Rose of Lima said "Apart from the Cross, there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven!"

On Holy Thursday we pray especially for our priests. They are called to humble service in a unique and special way. Thousands of priests and bishops all over the world follow Jesus's example, unworthy as they are, during Holy Thursday service. We pray that this gesture of love and service is for them a real sign of their love and devotion to God and his people.

Thank you and God Bless everyone.

Fr Leslie

May the gift that is Jesus live in your home and in your heart throughout the year

LETTER FROM CAFOD – GIVE IT UP LENT FAST DAY RAISED £682.21

On behalf of all our partners and the communities they work with, I want to thank you and all your parishioners for your generous support of our Lenten Give it up! appeal.

Your generous support - doubled this Lent by the Government's UK Aid match funding - means we are able to drill more boreholes, build more latrines, help more families grow nutrition gardens so they can feed themselves and earn a living. These are just some of the examples of what your donations will do. Zimi, 10, from Zimbabwe told us, "Water is like a gift from God." As Catholics, we believe that everything we have is a gift from God and we are called to share it with those in need. Thank you for the prayers and gifts the parish have offered in support of our work this Lent. Please go to cafod.org.uk for more Lent appeal updates.

MARRIAGE IS UNIQUE AND THERE IS NO NEED TO REDEFINE

If you agree there is an on-line petition you can sign at www.c4m.org.uk

This link is for the petition for the definition of marriage to remain the same, as discussed recently by Archbishop Carey. Over 60,000 people have signed so far.

The petition reads "I support the legal definition of marriage which is the voluntary union for life of one man and one woman to the exclusion of all others. I oppose any attempt to redefine it".

After Easter there will be a more detailed leaflet available from the Archbishops on the Government's consultation itself, for distribution in parishes, to assist Catholics in making their own response to the consultation.

Children's Corner

A Prayer to say

Dear Jesus, Judas was your friend, but he told your enemies where to find you. It is not good to betray your friends. I promise always to be faithful to my friends, not to tell lies, or blame them for things they did not do. I pray that my friends in turn will also care for me.

Amen

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus is taken away to be killed. He dies for us so that we may be free from our sins.

SUGGESTIONS FOR PERSONAL PRAYER

- ✚ Prepare a place with a few symbols to create a special place – a candle, a bible, a cross.
  - ✚ Set a special time each day and be faithful to that time. Decide on a time for your reflection and prayer – 15 mins, 30 mins or less.
  - ✚ Take a small scripture passage or a verse from the Psalms and savour it in your hearts.
  - ✚ Be faithful and thankful to the Sacraments regularly.
- "Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life:
You have the message of eternal life" (Jn 6: 63-69)

URGENT HELP REQUIRED

Help is needed to make tea and coffee after the 10.30 mass on Sundays. Could you spare an hour once every five or so weeks? If you think you can help please call Teresa on 01277 233540.

PARISH ALTAR SERVERS

Our parish desperately needs young people to come forward to train to serve Jesus, through your priest. We encourage our young people to train for other things and team sports, which is good. However, we all need to ask the Lord what can I do, what am I called to do in my parish to thank God for all the blessings he has given to me, and how can I help to draw closer in holiness through an active part in our liturgy. This goes for all ministries, Readers, Choir members, Eucharistic Ministers, Musicians, Welcomers, Ushers – ALL these and more are ways of being unselfish in our lives. Pope John Paul II said that involvement in the life of the Church would keep young people close to Jesus.

I ask you the parents to discuss this with your children and young people. Thank you.

- "We have been working here for over 12 years, and helping others less fortunate helps us to appreciate how lucky we are to be fit and healthy. It's good to be here."

The Marillac is a residential home for younger adults with physical and/or neurological disabilities. We are based in Eagle Way, Warley, Brentwood opposite the Ford's building.

Volunteering can be undertaken midweek, at weekends and in the evenings - even if you are only available to come in during term time.
