PARISH NEWS 2 FEBRUARY 2014

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

CONTINUING THE ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF FRANCIS THE ECCLESIAL FORM OF FAITH

22. In this way, the life of the believer becomes an ecclesial existence, a life lived in the Church. When Saint Paul tells the Christians of Rome that all who believe in Christ make up one body, he urges them not to boast of this; rather, each must think of himself "according to the measure of faith that God has assigned" (Rom 12:3). Those who believe come to see themselves in the light of the faith which they profess: Christ is the mirror in which they find their own image fully realized. And just as Christ gathers to himself all those who believe and makes them his body, so the Christian comes to see himself as a member of this body, in an essential relationship with all other believers. The image of a body does not imply that the believer is simply one part of an anonymous whole, a mere cog in a great machine; rather, it brings out the vital union of Christ with believers, and of believers among themselves (cf. Rom 12:4-5). Christians are "one" (cf. Gal 3:28), yet in a way which does not make them lose their individuality; in service to others, they come into their own in the highest degree. This explains why, apart from this body, outside this unity of the Church in Christ, outside this Church which—in the words of Romano Guardini—"is the bearer within history of the plenary gaze of Christ on the world"—faith loses its "measure"; it no longer finds its equilibrium, the space needed to sustain itself. Faith is necessarily ecclesial; it is professed from within the body of Christ as a concrete communion of believers. It is against this ecclesial backdrop that faith opens the individual Christian toward all others. Christ's word, once heard, by virtue of its inner power at work in the heart of the Christian, becomes a response, a spoken word, a profession of faith. As Saint Paul puts it: "one believes with the heart . . . and confesses with the lips" (Rom 10:10). Faith is not a private matter, a completely individualistic notion or a personal opinion: it comes from hearing, and it is meant to find expression in words and to be proclaimed. For "how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher?" (Rom 10:14). Faith becomes operative in the Christian on the basis of the gift received, the love which attracts our hearts to Christ (cf. Gal 5:6), and enables us to become part of the Church's great pilgrimage through history until the end of the world. For those who have been transformed in this way, a new way of seeing opens up; faith becomes light for their eyes.

EATING IN THE 50S

Following on from our piece last week, here are some more suggestions from a parishioner to add to the list:

- Salad consisted of a lettuce leaf and half a tomato which your mum had cut in zigzags.
- Sunday tea consisted of tinned spam or corned beef, which no-one eats now.
- We never realised that tinned peaches were actually the same thing as the peaches which grew on trees, because they tasted nothing like them!!

Thanks for your contribution. Any more???

PARKING IN HIGHVIEW CRESCENT

Parents bringing their children to either the Pre-School or St. Joseph Primary School are asked not to bring their cars up Highview Crescent. Recently more cars are coming up and blocking our neighbours' driveways and/or double parking. This causes a lot of concern, naturally. Both myself and the school have the neighbours complaining to us about the situation. We must all work together to address this real and persistent problem. But what causes much sadness is the language some car drivers use when confronted with the situation. We are parents and parishioners of a catholic church and we should remember that when we engage in conversation with other people. Thank you for reading this and hopefully understanding and appreciative of this difficult situation.

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parishioners on this Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. Under Jewish law a woman was required, after giving birth to a child, to offer to the Lord in sacrifice a lamb, or two turtledoves, or two young pigeons. Mary and Joseph, by bringing Jesus to the Temple, fulfilled the prescribed legal requirement. At the same time they consecrated Jesus to God. In presenting Jesus, Mary and Joseph were returning to the Lord, with thanksgiving the very gift that he had given them.

Simeon and Anna also gave God worship in their hearts. The spirit rested upon Simeon preparing his heart for the Lord's coming, and causing him to long to set his eyes on the Christ of the Lord. Also Anna was seeking the Lord. She had been in the Temple for years longing and praying for the Lord's coming.

In Mary, Joseph, Simeon and Anna we see so much desire and the longing for the Lord. They rejoiced as they recognised that Jesus was the longed-for Christ. It was the Holy Spirit who gave birth to this desire, longing, recognition and delight in their lives. The Spirit wants to give us a similar longing for his return. The Spirit wishes to purify our hearts from all dullness, indifference and apathy so that we may desire to see the light of Jesus' face and long to set our eyes on his glory when he comes again.

Let us today enter joyfully into the celebration, and together with Simeon and Anna announce salvation to all the world.

Thank you God Bless and have a great week

UP FOR A CHALLENGE????

BBC Songs of Praise is looking for a church family to take part in some filming over the Summer. The BBC are searching for a family that is open minded, game for a laugh, and happy to try out new activities; and who is open about their faith and happy to be filmed as part of their church community. Ideally, you will be a family with a mixture of ages: for example, grandparents, parents, and teenage children. The filming will involve members of the family getting involved with a variety of wide-ranging pursuits: anything from, for example, a bike ride, to going on an afternoon retreat! It's not essential to be experienced in any of the activities, in fact, being a beginner or a bit rusty could be part of the fun!

Filming will be approximately six days in total, although not all members of the family will be required for every filming day. It is likely that we will need to come to your home and church for some of the filming.

Filming will take place between March and May 2014. You don't need to be available for the whole of this period: filming dates can be flexible.

Interested families need to contact Amy Ryninks from Songs of Praise as soon as possible by email: amy.ryninks@bbc.co.uk or on 0161 335 8427. In your email please give us your full name, contact details, and a brief description, and - if possible - a photograph of your family. Thank you so much - we are really looking forward to hearing from you!

Please note: after initial contact by interested families, a member of the Songs of Praise team may ask for further information about your family (either by phone or email) if they think you may be suitable. Following this, we will then make a final decision about which family we decide to film and feature in the programme. Songs of Praise transmits on a Sunday evening on BBC ONE. As well as music, the programme features stories and interviews, and the family chosen will appear over a number of episodes as they try different activities.

An evening for Catechists will take place on Wednesday 26 March at 7.30 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. Please let Sister Nuala know if you wish to take part. We are also looking for new Catechists to offer themselves in this wonderful ministry. Please give this a thought.

ST. JOSEPH BAZAAR 2014

A very big thank you to the young mums who are prepared to run a Bazaar for us later this year. Thats good news for the parish and a good way to start 2014!

Jesus parents, Mary and Joseph, bring Jesus to the Temple so that he can be presented to the Lord. Though Jesus is still a child, both Simeon and Anna realise who Jesus is: the Son of God. They thank the Lord for sending Jesus and tell everyone they meet the good news.
