PARISH NEWS 3 FEBRUARY 2013

VOCAATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

APOSTOLIC LETTER "MOTU PROPRIO DATA"

PORTA FIDEI OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF BENEDICT XVI - FOR THE INDICTION OF THE YEAR OF FAITH

CONTINUATION OF "PORTA FIDEI" (DOOR OF FAITH)

"Caritas Christi urget nos" (2 Cor 5:14): it is the love of Christ that fills our hearts and impels us to evangelize. Today as in the past, he sends us through the highways of the world to proclaim his Gospel to all the peoples of the earth (cf. Mt 28:19). Through his love, Jesus Christ attracts to himself the people of every generation: in every age he convokes the Church, entrusting her with the proclamation of the Gospel by a mandate that is ever new. Today too, there is a need for stronger ecclesial commitment to new evangelization in order to rediscover the joy of believing and the enthusiasm for communicating the faith. In rediscovering his love day by day, the missionary commitment of believers attains force and vigour that can never fade away. Faith grows when it is lived as an experience of love received and when it is communicated as an experience of grace and joy. It makes us fruitful, because it expands our hearts in hope and enables us to bear life-giving witness: indeed, it opens the hearts and minds of those who listen to respond to the Lord's invitation to adhere to his word and become his disciples. Believers, so Saint Augustine tells us, "strengthen themselves by believing". The saintly Bishop of Hippo had good reason to express himself in this way. As we know, his life was a continual search for the beauty of the faith until such time as his heart would find rest in God. His extensive writings, in which he explains the importance of believing and the truth of the faith, continue even now to form a heritage of incomparable riches, and they still help many people in search of God to find the right path towards the "door of faith".

Only through believing, then, does faith grow and become stronger; there is no other possibility for possessing certitude with regard to one's life apart from self-abandonment, in a continuous crescendo, into the hands of a love that seems to grow constantly because it has its origin in God.

On this happy occasion, I wish to invite my brother bishops from all over the world to join the Successor of Peter, during this time of spiritual grace that the Lord offers us, in recalling the precious gift of faith. We want to celebrate this Year in a worthy and fruitful manner. Reflection on the faith will have to be intensified, so as to help all believers in Christ to acquire a more conscious and vigorous adherence to the Gospel, especially at a time of profound change such as humanity is currently experiencing. We will have the opportunity to profess our faith in the Risen Lord in our cathedrals and in the churches of the whole world; in our homes and among our families, so that everyone may feel a strong need to know better and to transmit to future generations the faith of all times. Religious communities as well as parish communities, and all ecclesial bodies old and new, are to find a way, during this Year, to make a public profession of the Credo.

MISSION STATEMENT

To have Christ at the centre of our lives, enabling us to grow in faith as a community where all feel welcome, loved and valued.

NEW READERS WANTED

Would you be willing to read at Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday morning? We desperately need more readers at all masses to share in delivering the Word of God. Coaching and practice can be given. Please sign up on the list in the porch if you are interested.

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to all our parishioners. Today is the fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

We hear today of St Paul's beautiful hymn of love. In the context of a wedding, the passage speaks of the mutual love and commitment that the couple express through the sacrament. Each one of us can use the words of Paul to discover how fully, or otherwise, they live up to the demands of love. "When I was a child" is also a challenge, for it asks each of us to acknowledge that love is about maturity, and something that you deliberately choose – not simply some emotion that happens to you. In the end love is about choosing to live as Jesus lived.

The reaction to Jeremiah and to Jesus in the other two readings offer a clear indication of just how challenging it can be to take God's love seriously and allow it to guide our lives. Many who hear these words will know the cost of love in various aspects of life. But perhaps all who hear these passages need to acknowledge that "without love, then I am nothing".

Let us take time today to praise our loving God for this opportunity to come to know more deeply the love of Christ. Then let us pray for a way to respond by showing that love by showing that love in our own lives.

THANK YOU AND GOD BLESS

Fr Leslie

What does Sunday, the day of the Lord, mean for us? It is a day for rest and for family, but first of all a day for Him.

FINANCE MATTERS

Week ending 26/27 Jan you gave £322.89 of which £35.50 was Gift Aided. Thank you

There are available at the church porch Gift Aid forms, and also 200 Club forms.

Maybe you would like to Gift Aid your giving or update it, if you or your spouse are a taxpayer.

200 club forms - this is a marvellous idea. Just £24 per year (and you can pay monthly by Standing Order), and you will participate in the monthly draw.

Both ways help our parish to meet its commitments.

THE SUNDAY OBLIGATION

"The precept of the church specifies the law of the Lord more precisely: on Sundays and other Holy Days of Obligation the faithful are bound to participate at Mass....The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practices. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin. Catechism of the Catholic Church.

WE CAN ALL LEARN FROM OUR CHILDREN

As part of the First Holy Communion programme that a number of our young people are undertaking at the moment, they are encouraged to ensure they have a quiet period each and every day and say a prayer. The suggested prayer is Lord God, each one of us is precious in your eyes. That is wonderful! Thank you. We love you. We want to live in your love. Please help us. We praise and thank you. Amen.

Maybe we could all find a quiet moment each day in our busy lives for such a lovely prayer?
