Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to all our parishioners and to any visitors. I hope you find us a welcoming community. In today's gospel Jesus commissions 72 disciples to go and preach the gospel. As Catholic Christians we have been given a great gift, namely, the gift of faith. But like any special gift that we are given we treasure it and even show it to others who may pass a remark about our gift.

Likewise with our faith. Not only the knowledge of what we believe and why we are Catholics but also to the intimate relationship we have with Jesus through prayer and the Sacraments. It is truly an awesome gift. It is a gift we want to share with others by the words and actions of our daily lives. We are called to be faithful to the commandments of Jesus which, if kept, will make us stand out from others in our society. For example, putting God first in our daily lives, especially on a Sunday. To be respectful to other people whoever they are. To show compassion, mercy and forgiveness. To protect all human life. Not to gossip and take away a person's good name. To be content with what we have, and much more. It is by living the Christian way of life that other people will see this "special gift" that we have received, and will bring others to want to know what we believe and spread the Good News. We need to rise up and embrace our call so that we can bring our country and world back to the Lord. Let our daily prayer be "Lord, give me the heart of an evangelist. Create in me a heart to win souls for Christ and tell others the Good News".

Our gathering here, like many such gatherings around the world, is one of the fruits of the first disciples.

Thank you and God bless..

Fr Leslie

1. A Christian is never bored or sad. Rather, the one who loves Christ is full of joy and radiates joy.
2. Lets learn to lose our lives for Christ, like a gift or a sacrifice. With Christ we lose nothing!
3. We cannot live as Christians separate from the rock who is Christ. He gives us strength and stability, but also joy and serenity.

Weekly offertory collection and Gift Aid

Do you pay tax? Then please join the Gift Aid scheme. If you have an income (wage, salary, pension or investment income) on which you pay UK tax, you can boost the donations you are currently making to your parish by 25% without you giving anything extra.

For example, if your offertory each week was £2.00, instead of the parish receiving £104.00, it would receive £130.00.

Amount received by

Amount each week	Amount each year	Parish after Gift Aid
£2.00	£104.00	£130.00
£5.00	£260.00	£325.00

Also we have our 200 Club. For an outlay of £24.00 per year you could win one of our monthly cash prizes. Both these ways will be a great help to our parish. There are large white envelopes at the back of the church for one-off donations. Thank you for reading this.

BRENTWOOD DEANERY MASS - A LETTER OF THANKS FROM FR. JOHN MCGRATH

On behalf of the Priests and Parishes of the Deanery, I would like to thank you and your parishioners for hosting our Annual Brentwood Deanery Mass at St Joseph the Worker on Friday last. All who attended greatly enjoyed the occasion and we would especially like to thank you and your parishioners for your hospitality and the opportunity to socialise in the hall afterwards. I am sure that you will convey this expression of our gratitude to your parishioners and particularly your refreshments team.

With best wishes

HOLIDAYS

Fr. Leslie will be on holiday from Monday 15 July to 16 August. Fr. Philip Walshe will say Saturday evening mass during this time. Fr. Noel Doyle will celebrate the Sunday morning masses.

Jan Jarvis will be looking after things but she will need help. For example picking up Fr. Noel for the Sunday masses. If you can help in any way please ask Jan in what area you can help.

Thank you, and I hope you all enjoy your holidays too.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION - PARENTS AND CHILDREN 2013-2014

We again welcome our parents and children who would like to participate in the First Holy Communion programme next year.

The application forms are at the back of the church and need to be completed and returned by the end of the school term in July. Please include a copy of your child's baptismal certificate, if baptised outside of our parish, together with £30 to pay for the books they will need.

The welcome evening will be on Wednesday, 11 September 8.00 p.m. to 9.30 p.m. when you will meet the team. You will also be given the dates both for the children's sessions which will be on Saturday mornings. Also the parent's evenings which will be on Wednesday evenings. Both these are monthly and you will be expected to attend. We have to fit the programme into a tight schedule and we ask you to keep this in mind. Please put the welcome evening into your diaries now. Thank you and I look forward to welcoming you on 11 September with the Catechists.

We have received an anonymous donation to buy something for the parish/church. It might be a nice idea to invest the money in a statue, may be similar to the one pictured here.

If we went ahead it would provide the church with a lasting memorial. I would be pleased to hear your views and indeed any other suggestions you may have.

Let us have your comments please

A Prayer to say

Father God, help us to be brave, like sheep among wolves, and tell everyone about your love for us.

Amen.

Jesus sent seventy-two of his followers out in pairs, to different towns. He told them that they were like sheep among wolves. They were not to take money, or bags or sandals, nor were they to talk to people along the way. They were to say, Peace be with this house before going in. If the people there were friendly they were to stay and eat and drink what was given them, heal the sick and tell the townsfolk: The Kingdom of God is near you.
