PARISH NEWS 10 MARCH 2013

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

YEAR OF FAITH²⁰¹²₂₀₁₃

APOSTOLIC LETTER "MOTU PROPRIO DATA"

PORTA FIDEI OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF BENEDICT XVI - FOR THE INDICATION OF THE YEAR OF FAITH
CONTINUATION OF "PORTA FIDEI" (DOOR OF FAITH)

The Year of Faith will also be a good opportunity to intensify the witness of charity. As Saint Paul reminds us: "So faith, hope, love abide, these three; but the greatest of these is love" (1 Cor 13:13). With even stronger words -which have always placed Christians under obligation - Saint James said: "What does it profit, my brethren, if a man says he has faith but has no works? Can his faith save him? If a brother or sister is ill-clad and in lack of daily food, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, be warmed and filled', without giving them the things needed for the body, what does it profit? So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead. But someone will say, 'You have faith and I have works.' Show me your faith apart from your works, and I by my works will show you my faith" (Jas 2:14-18).

Faith without charity bears no fruit, while charity without faith would be a sentiment constantly at the mercy of doubt. Faith and charity each require the other, in such a way that each allows the other to set out along its respective path. Indeed, many Christians dedicate their lives with love to those who are lonely, marginalised or excluded, as to those who are the first with a claim on our attention and the most important for us to support, because it is in them that the reflection of Christ's own face is seen. Through faith, we can recognize the face of the risen Lord in those who ask for our love. "As you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). These words are a warning that must not be forgotten and a perennial invitation to return the love by which he takes care of us. It is faith that enables us to recognise Christ and it is his love that impels us to assist him whenever he becomes our neighbour along the journey of life. Supported by faith, let us look with hope at our commitment in the world, as we await "new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells".

Joke Corner -1

All the passengers are seated on a plane out on the tarmac and the stewardess announces "we're just waiting for the pilots." The passengers look out of the window and see two men, dressed as pilots, walking towards the plane. Both men are using guide dogs and appear to be blind. There are murmurs among the passengers, and some believe it's a joke. The men board the plane and go into the cockpit. More concerned murmurs and uneasy chuckles from the passengers. The plane taxis normally to the runway and begins its takeoff. As passengers look out the window they realise they are nearing the end of the runway. The entire passenger cabin begins screaming but the plane lifts off just before the end of the runway. The passengers calm down and chuckle to themselves, in the cockpit, the pilot turns to his co-pilot and says "you know, one day those people are gonna scream too late!"

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parishioners and visitors. I hope you enjoy our Sunday Mass. This Sunday our Catechumens and Candidates will be prayed for at our 8.30 a.m. Mass, and next Sunday at the 10.30 a.m. Mass. At the 8.30 Mass the Gospel will come from year A, the account of the man born blind. Please pray for our Catechumens and Candidates as they prepare to be received into the Catholic Church at Easter. Today's readings come from Joshua, St. Paul to the people of Corinth, and St. Luke.

St. Paul calls us to be ambassadors of Christ. The Christian calling is always directed to others and not to our own personal devotions. It is for us to live our Catholic faith openly and allow God to work through us.

The parable of the prodigal son is so familiar that we often fail to hear the message. The son who squandered his inheritance came back seeking reconciliation. The father not only forgave him but put on a feast out of joy that he was back. It is the very nature of God to be extravagant.

We lead up to the celebration of the Tridium shortly, namely Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. For the father to forgive us, he gave up his only son. Lent, for us, is not a time of giving up or of deprivation, but a time when we can try to express our sorrow by being extravagant in our penances. We have complained about the cold weather – did we ever think of thanking Jesus and offering it up in atonement for our sin?

Thank you and God bless.

Fr Leslie

NEW READERS WANTED

Would you be willing to read at Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday morning? We desperately need more readers at all masses to share in delivering the Word of God. Coaching and practice can be given. Please sign up on the list in the porch if you are interested

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

If you are unable to come to a weekday masses, you may find this prayer helpful; "O Jesus I turn toward the holy Tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I love you, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own Amen.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Will be celebrated on Sunday 3 November when our Bishop makes a visitation to our parish. The following have asked to be confirmed; Charlie Neal, Andrew Martin, Joseph Gil, Rachel Strickland, Lily Thompson-Ayres, Simon Spinks, Kaitlyn Farimond, Louise Walker, Sophia Da Silva and Kevin Barber. If I have missed someone out or if anyone else would like to be confirmed please ask in writing to Father Leslie. Shortly a meeting will be arranged to introduce you to the programme, and meet the Catechists Sarah and James Barber, to whom I am very grateful

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Could all those who have expressed interest in being Confirmed in the parish in November 2013 come to an initial meeting to discuss the arrangements for the Confirmation programme on Sunday 24 March at 6.00 p.m. in the parish hall. It is anticipated that this meeting will be over by 7.00 p.m., and parents are invited to stay with their son/daughter. It would be helpful if candidates were able to bring their baptismal certificates with them. If you have not yet let Fr. Leslie know that you are interested then please write with an expression of interest before the meeting (candidates must be in school year 10 or above in November 2013).

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

Jesus tells a story about a younger son who asks his father for money and leaves home. He wastes the money until he is poor. Now he has to work looking after pigs. He is sad. He decides to go home and ask if he can be his father's servant. His father is so happy to see him that he welcomes him back as his son and holds a massive party to celebrate. His elder brother is cross because his dad has never held a big party for him. The father says that it is right to celebrate because the son was lost but now is found.

CATHOLIC AND HAVE LOST TOUCH?

If you have been a non Church-going Catholic for a long time, it can be very helpful to read about contemporary Catholic beliefs and life. It may appear to you that some things have changed.
