PARISH NEWS 20 OCTOBER 2013

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

CONTINUING THE ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF FRANCIS

CHAPTER ONE

We Have Believed in Love

Abraham, our father in faith

8. Faith opens the way before us and accompanies our steps through time. Hence, if we want to understand what faith is, we need to follow the route it has taken, the path trodden by believers, as witnessed first in the Old Testament. Here a unique place belongs to Abraham, our father in faith. Something disturbing takes place in his life: God speaks to him; he reveals himself as a God who speaks and calls his name. Faith is linked to hearing. Abraham does not see God, but hears his voice. Faith thus takes on a personal aspect. God is not the god of a particular place, or a deity linked to specific sacred time, but the God of a person, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, capable of interacting with man and establishing a covenant with him. Faith is our response to a word which engages us personally, to a "Thou" who calls us by name.
9. The word spoken to Abraham contains both a call and a promise. First, it is a call to leave his own land, a summons to a new life, the beginning of an exodus which points him toward an unforeseen future. The sight which faith would give to Abraham would always be linked to the need to take this step forward: faith "sees" to the extent that it journeys, to the extent that it chooses to enter into the horizons opened up by God's word. This word also contains a promise: Your descendants will be great in number; you will be the father of a great nation (cf. Gen 13:16; 15:5; 22:17). As a response to a word which preceded it, Abraham's faith would always be an act of remembrance. Yet this remembrance is not fixed on past events but, as the memory of a promise, it becomes capable of opening up the future, shedding light on the path to be taken. We see how faith, as remembrance of the future, memoria futuri, is thus closely bound up with hope.
10. Abraham is asked to entrust himself to this word. Faith understands that something so apparently ephemeral and fleeting as a word, when spoken by the God who is fidelity, becomes absolutely certain and unshakable, guaranteeing the continuity of our journey through history. Faith accepts this word as a solid rock upon which we can build, a straight highway on which we can travel. In the Bible, faith is expressed by the Hebrew word "emunah", derived from the verb "aman" whose root means "to uphold". The term emunah can signify both God's fidelity and man's faith. The man of faith gains strength by putting himself in the hands of the God who is faithful. Playing on this double meaning of the word—also found in the corresponding terms in Greek (pistos) and Latin (fidelis)—Saint Cyril of Jerusalem praised the dignity of the Christian who receives God's own name: both are called "faithful." As Saint Augustine explains: "Man is faithful when he believes in God and his promises; God is faithful when he grants to man what he has promised."

MISSION STATEMENT

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parish of St. Joseph the Worker.

Every good parent teaches their children to say "thank you" from an early age. Thanks and gratitude expressed gives dignity to both giver and receiver. There is much to learn in today's Gospel of the Grateful Leper. We do not know his name but we do know he was a Samaritan. Out of the ten he was the only one who came back to say thank you. To be a leper was to be an outcast in society. The cure of the leper is a sign that God cares for us and his love is far wider and deeper than we realised. Also the cure of the leper brings conversion.

We too, through sin, become lepers. We are cut off from God's grace and his life within us. We become outsiders. But through the Sacrament of Reconciliation we are converted and return to Jesus with peace and thanksgiving. Also, the more often we come to the Sacrament, the closer we grow to the Lord and also grow in our Christian vocation, namely holiness. The Mercy of God is always available to us and Jesus never tires of giving us his forgiveness and mercy.

Enjoy your Sunday and have a good week..

Enjoy your Sunday and God Bless.

Fr Leslie

THE HEALING SPIRIT

QUESTION OF FAITH

As part of our Deanery's involvement in the Year of Faith programme, St Joseph's recently hosted the 'The Question of Faith' team from the Commission of Evangelization and Formation (CEF). The event was attended by around 30 people - mostly from St Joseph's - but with a few parishioners from some of the other parishes in the Deanery. Refreshments and nibbles were kindly provided by CEF.

The team of three were Fr. Bob White, formerly Vicar of St. Thomas of Canterbury Brentwood but now a priest of the Ordinariate based in Rochford, Clare Ward, who works for the Bishops' Conference and Fr. Paul Keane, parish priest at Wivenhoe and Chaplain to Essex University. Mrs Sheila Wright from CEF acted as chairman.

The questions were many and varied. Some of the topics covered were infallibility of the Pope, celibacy, marriage, divorce and remarriage, legacy of Benedict XVI and John Paul II, the impact of Pope Francis, women's ordination and the Ordinariate to mention just a few. The evening was informative, stimulating and thought provoking and I hope there was something for everyone to take away with them.

A big 'Thank you' to all from St. Joseph's who supported the event.

Jesus told a story about a widow and a proud judge. The widow had a problem and was always asking the judge to help her, but he always said no. But then one day he decided that he would help her, to stop her pestering him. Jesus said that if that judge were willing to help the woman, then God will always answer our prayer, so we must keep on praying and not give up.
