VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

THE BISHOP'S PASTORAL LETTER CELEBRATION HOLY WEEK

My Dear People,

The first Gospel for the season of Lent opens with these words: "Filled with the Holy Spirit Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days". These words are a powerful reminder that Lent is a journey in which the Spirit guides us and we are asked to be open to the promptings of the Spirit. The purpose of this Lenten journey is to prepare our hearts and minds to celebrate the life-giving events of Holy Week.

The last Gospel for the season of Lent ends with these words: "The Jewish Passover drew near, and many of the people who had gone up to Jerusalem to purify themselves looked out for Jesus, saying to one another as they stood about in the Temple, 'What do you think? Will he come to the festival or not?'" One thing will be certain - Jesus will be there. What about you?

Holy Week isn't like an anniversary or re-enactment. In the liturgy the once and for all Saving events of our redemption and especially the death and resurrection of Jesus are celebrated and in the power of the Spirit are made present in every time and place. But, we ourselves have to be open to this.

The 'Great Week' begins with PALM SUNDAY. Jesus comes in humility, on a donkey- and so the procession with palms followed by the reading of the Passion.

On Wednesday evening we have the MASS OF CHRISM in the Cathedral. The presence of Jesus is now highlighted under the form of Oil to be blessed and used for the sacraments in the coming year. On this day the Lord ordained His first priests and so, at this service, all the clergy renew their commitment. It is a most moving ceremony and I warmly invite you to join us.

HOLY THURSDAY begins the three days when Jesus journeys through suffering and death into the life of the Resurrection. We recall the institution and real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist as we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper. It is also an evening of prayer when we spend time in the presence of the Lord so that we may accompany him in his journey.

On GOOD FRIDAY Jesus appears as the 'suffering servant' portrayed by Isaiah. This liturgy is also a reminder that the Cross, although apparently an image of defeat, is actually a sign of victory - God's selfless love triumphs over human sin and selfishness.

The EASTER VIGIL is the high point and the very heart of our celebration. We celebrate Jesus risen and glorious. The liturgy begins with a festival centred around light, word, water and culminates in the celebration of the Eucharist. We renew our baptismal promises whereby we commit ourselves to 'pass over' from sin to a new life in Christ. The joy of Easter night has been heightened by the fact that over 300 people around the diocese will be baptised or received into full Communion. The joy of this most holy night flows into Easter Sunday - known as the 'Great Day' or the 'Great Easter'.

We commemorate all these events not merely that we might remember them, but by being present to the reality of Jesus' death and resurrection. He indeed will be at the Festival. What about you?

CHURCHES TOGETHER - EASTER LEAFLETS

Dear All The leaflets are available in the Narthex. Thank you in advance. Please avoid houses advertising unfriendly dogs! Thanks again. God bless.

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to all our parishioners and visitors. We hope you enjoy our Sunday Mass. If you do not already Gift-Aid your Sunday offering, please take a Gift Aid form and envelope from the Narthex. Coffee and tea are served in the parish Hall after 8.30 and 10.30 Masses.

Today at all Masses palms and will be blessed. In the year of faith decreed by Pope Benedict, our Holy Father had in mind the hope that each of us would embark on a journey of renewal, refreshment and rediscovery and come to know the joy of a personal encounter with the living Lord. This coming week gives us a wonderful opportunity to personally enter into the mystery of our salvation by following Jesus from his triumphal entry into Jerusalem through his Passion and death to his resurrection.

When we hear the story of the Passion or read it at home, ask the spirit to help you rejoice and glory in the events that are unfolding. There is no doubt the events surrounding Jesus' death are brutal. For from wanting to rejoice or glory in the cross, we are often drawn to tears of sorrow. The spirit leads us to see the cross as the sign of life.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, the cross of Jesus is made real and present to us. Each one of us is called also to make the cross by entering into the mystery more deeply in our lives. Today the palms that we receive should be a reminder to us not of our failures and sins, but of Christ's great victory over sin and death, and his rule over our hearts for ever.

Thank you, God Bless, and have a great week.

BRENTWOOD DEANERY PASTORAL COUNCIL – AN UPDATE

A meeting was held on 12 February when details for our annual Deanery Mass, to be celebrated on 21 June, were finalised. This year St Joseph's are the hosts and all are welcome. There will be refreshments in the hall after Mass.

Marriage preparation was discussed fully by the Priests at their Deanery meeting. The Parishes within the Deanery reported on all their various activities held since our previous meeting.

As part of the Year of Faith, Brentwood Deanery will be hosting the Question of Faith team on 8 October. Again, the venue will be St Joseph's. More details will be posted nearer the time but all are welcome to attend and it will be an opportunity to ask the experts question on aspects of our faith.

Our next meeting is 14 May, in the Upper Room at Brentwood Cathedral. If you would like to observe or there are any issues you would like discussed, please speak to Margaret Bailey or Mary Allum.

LUCY CALIBRITTO

Lucy Calibritto is most grateful to all her friends and fellow parishioners who prayed for her and sent her get-well messages during the time she was unwell. Lucy is now back at home and is feeling much better.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

If you are unable to come to a weekday mass, you may find this prayer helpful; "O Jesus I turn toward the holy Tabernacle where you live hidden for love of me. I love you, O my God. I cannot receive you in Holy Communion. Come nevertheless and visit me with your grace. Come spiritually into my heart. Purify it. Sanctify it. Render it like unto your own. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Will be celebrated on Sunday 3 November when our Bishop makes a visitation to our parish. The following have asked to be confirmed; Charlie Neal, Andrew Martin, Joseph Gil, Rachel Strickland, Lily Thompson-Ayres, Simon Spinks, Kaitlyn Farimond, Louise Walker, Sophia Da Silva and Kevin Barber. If I have missed someone out or if anyone else would like to be confirmed please ask in writing to Father Leslie. Shortly a meeting will be arranged to introduce you to the programme, and meet the Catechists Sarah and James Barber, to whom I am very grateful

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Could all those who have expressed interest in being Confirmed in the parish in November 2013 come to an initial meeting to discuss the arrangements for the Confirmation programme on Sunday 24 March at 6.00 p.m. in the parish hall. It is anticipated that this meeting will be over by 7.00 p.m., and parents are invited to stay with their son/daughter. It would be helpful if candidates were able to bring their baptismal certificates with them. If you have not yet let Fr. Leslie know that you are interested then please write with an expression of interest before the meeting (candidates must be in school year 10 or above in November 2013).

PARISH REGISTER.

Many, many thanks to Clare and Catherine who are taking on the enormous task of updating the parish register. A huge vote of thanks to them both for undertaking this crucial role which is clearly very important to the future of our parish. Once the register has been updated we will be in touch with all our parishioners asking them to complete a Census Form to ensure that the database is as good as it can be.

Thanks in advance for your help

ST JOHN PAYNE SCHOOLS LENTEN SERVICE

St John Payne Schools Lenten Service is a presentation of our Lords journey to the cross entitled: Born for This music by Rolinson, Boyce and Stanley. It will take place on Wednesday 27 March at 7.30 p.m. in the Upper School Hall. Friends of the school are very welcome to attend this spiritual preparation for Easter.

POPE FRANCIS I

Congratulations to Pope Francis I on his election to be our Holy Father. A truly humble man who will be a great Pastor.

Jesus is arrested and accused of telling lies about who he really is. But Jesus has been telling the truth, as he really is the Son of God. The authorities sentence him to death, and Jesus dies on a cross.
