PARISH NEWS 24 NOVEMBER 2013

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

CONTINUING THE ENCYCLICAL LETTER OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF FRANCIS

THE LIGHT OF FAITH - CONTINUED

The faith of Israel (continued)

14. In the faith of Israel we also encounter the figure of Moses, the mediator. The people may not see the face of God; it is Moses who speaks to YHWH on the mountain and then tells the others of the Lord's will. With this presence of a mediator in its midst, Israel learns to journey together in unity. The individual act of faith finds its place within a community, within the common "we" of the people who, in faith, are like a single person—"my firstborn son," as God would describe all of Israel (cf. Ex 4:22). Here mediation is not an obstacle, but an opening: through our encounter with others, our gaze rises to a truth greater than ourselves. Rousseau once lamented that he could not see God for himself: "How many people stand between God and me!" I . . . "Is it really so simple and natural that God would have sought out Moses in order to speak to Jean Jacques Rousseau?"¹² On the basis of an individualistic and narrow conception of knowledge one cannot appreciate the significance of mediation, this capacity to participate in the vision of another, this shared knowledge which is the knowledge proper to love. Faith is God's free gift, which calls for humility and the courage to trust and to entrust; it enables us to see the luminous path leading to the encounter of God and humanity: the history of salvation.

All are invited to come and will be most welcome.

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parish of St Joseph the Worker.

Today is National Youth Sunday. At World Youth Day, Pope Francis sent the young people home with this message "Dear young people, as you return home, do not be afraid to be generous with Christ, to bear witness to his Gospel. Jesus Christ is counting on you! The church is counting on you! The Pope is counting on you! May Mary, mother of Jesus and our mother, always accompany you with her tenderness. "Go and make disciples of all nations".

We pray for the young people of our parish who are challenged in many ways today more than ever. It is important that they remain faithful to Jesus in their lives and gather each week to say "thank you". Christ is a King who travels alongside all his people, young and old, so as we see his grace at work in young lives, we all have confidence to make our own the prayer of the penitent thief - "Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom".

In today's Gospel, we find the only place where anyone refers to the Lord simply by name - "Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom". The good thief on the cross recognises that Jesus' Kingdom has nothing to do with worldly power and rule. In life we journey daily until the day we come into Jesus' Kingdom of peace, love and justice. May our prayer be that of the good thief - "Jesus remember me when you come into your Kingdom".

Have a great Sunday thank you and God bless.

Fr Leslie

FLK

As we enter Advent we ask the Holy Spirit to give us virtue of humility to seek out Jesus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

ACTION BY CHRISTIANS AGAINST TORTURE (ACAT) CHRISTMAS CARD CAMPAIGN 2013

Keep in mind those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them. Hebrews 13 As you may recall, last year, as a result of the Greetings Card Campaign in support of ACAT (Action by Christians Against Torture) parishioners sent out well over 100 cards to vulnerable prisoners in many different countries of the world as well as raising a generous donation which was sent to ACAT to promote its charitable work.

Greetings cards for prisoners under threat of torture (with supporting case studies) will be on sale at 30p each after every Mass next weekend on the first Sunday of Advent (Saturday 30 November and Sunday 1 Decemb er).

Thank you in anticipation of your continued and generous support.

OBITUARY - MICK ODOWD RIP

Lillian (Mick) ODowd sadly died on 30 October and her funeral was held here at St. Joseph the Worker on Friday 22 November at 11.30 a.m. For those of you that didnt know her, Mick was a convert and one of the founder members of St. Josephs who worked very hard to get our church established here in Hutton. This was in the late 1950s when the Council had refused planning permission for a church to be built on this land. Mick and other members of the community prayed constantly that the Council would change their mind, and even placed medals and flowers on the vacant land while they prayed. The St. Joseph the Worker church that we have today is their legacy to us, and we should be very grateful for all the hard work of the founder members of the church community.

Mick was a member of the Womens Guild and the SVP. She also arranged the flowers in church for many years, and was one of the founder members of Hutton Horticultural Societys Flower Group, where she is still spoken about and remembered with affection. Well done trusty servant of the Lord, may you Rest in Peace and Rise to Etemal Glory.

Children's Corner

A Prayer to say

Dear Jesus, we love you, we praise you and we adore you. You are the king of our hearts.

Amen.

IN THE GOSPEL TODAY

We hear what a surprising sort of king Jesus is. His glory was hidden when he was on the cross. But one of the thieves who was crucified with him asked Jesus to remember him when he entered his kingdom. Jesus promised the thief that he would be with him that day in heaven.
