

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

PARISH NEWS 27 JANUARY 2013

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord give me the gift of a generous heart to follow your will as I journey the path of life. You set before me the vocation of priesthood, religious life, single life and marriage. Grant me the grace and generosity I need to answer your call. Amen.

APOSTOLIC LETTER "MOTU PROPRIO DATA"

PORTA FIDEI OF THE SUPREME PONTIFF BENEDICT XVI - FOR THE INDICTION OF THE YEAR OF FAITH

CONTINUATION OF "PORTA FIDEI" (DOOR OF FAITH)

The renewal of the Church is also achieved through the witness offered by the lives of believers: by their very existence in the world, Christians are called to radiate the word of truth that the Lord Jesus has left us. The Council itself, in the Dogmatic Constitution Lumen Gentium, said this: While "Christ, 'holy, innocent and undefiled' (Heb 7:26) knew nothing of sin (cf. 2 Cor 5:21), but came only to expiate the sins of the people (cf. Heb 2:17)... the Church ... clasping sinners to its bosom, at once holy and always in need of purification, follows constantly the path of penance and renewal. The Church, 'like a stranger in a foreign land, presses forward amid the persecutions of the world and the consolations of God', announcing the cross and death of the Lord until he comes (cf. 1 Cor 11:26). But by the power of the risen Lord it is given strength to overcome, in patience and in love, its sorrow and its difficulties, both those that are from within and those that are from without, so that it may reveal in the world, faithfully, although with shadows, the mystery of its Lord until, in the end, it shall be manifested in full light."

The Year of Faith, from this perspective, is a summons to an authentic and renewed conversion to the Lord, the one Saviour of the world. In the mystery of his death and resurrection, God has revealed in its fullness the Love that saves and calls us to conversion of life through the forgiveness of sins (cf. Acts 5:31). For Saint Paul, this Love ushers us into a new life: "We were buried ... with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Rom 6:4). Through faith, this new life shapes the whole of human existence according to the radical new reality of the resurrection. To the extent that he freely cooperates, man's thoughts and affections, mentality and conduct are slowly purified and transformed, on a journey that is never completely finished in this life. "Faith working through love" (Gal 5:6) becomes a new criterion of understanding and action that changes the whole of man's life (cf. Rom 12:2; Col 3:9-10; Eph 4:20-29; 2 Cor 5:17).

Fr. Leslie writes

Welcome to our parish of St Joseph the Worker. And also a very warm welcome to our new parishioners. Please do join us for coffee after our 8.30 a.m. and 10.30 a.m. Masses - this is a wonderful way to meet new parishioners in particular, and for all of us to get together for a chat.

When we gather to celebrate our Sunday Eucharist we are feeding at the table of the Word and the table of the Eucharist. At best, the Word and the Eucharist are proclaimed and broken among the people. "The Word of God is something alive and active".

In the first reading from Nehemiah we have the marvellous picture of men and women weeping as they hear God's Word, so moved are they, and that picture is one that challenges those who hear God's Word today to allow it to challenge, console, and move them. Those who listened to Ezra had been deprived of God's Word and now they were able to receive it. The gospel applies words of Isaiah to Jesus, to state his mission and calling, yet it is in fact that Jesus says "this text is being fulfilled today even as you listen". The Word of God is always about today, it is not words of the past, but what God is doing here and now. Perhaps if we could recognise that, then we might respond powerfully to his message.

As we enter into our celebration today, let us be particularly attentive to the voice of God in the proclamation of our readings.

THANK YOU AND GOD BLESS

Fr Leslie

POPE ON TWITTER

What does the Lord ask of us as we work for Christian unity? To pray constantly, do justice, love goodness, and walk humbly with Him.

A Prayer to say

Thank you, Jesus, for choosing me. Help me to spread your Good News. Help me to share your love with everyone I meet.
Amen.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

Our Bishop will make a pastoral visitation to our parish on Sunday, 3 November 2013. On this occasion he will confirm some of our young parishioners. If you wish to be confirmed you must be 14+. Please notify in writing to father Leslie. Currently we have Andrew Martin, Joseph Gill, Charlie Neal and Louise Walker who want to be confirmed. Father Leslie must have your names by the end of January

NEW READERS WANTED

Would you be willing to read at Mass on Saturday evening or Sunday morning? We desperately need more readers at all masses to share in delivering the Word of God. Coaching and practice can be given. Please sign up on the list in the porch if you are interested.

200 CLUB

Members who pay their annual subscriptions in January by cash/cheque are kindly asked to leave their payments with Fr. Leslie. Thank you for your support in 2012 and we hope you have a Happy New Year. New members are most welcome. To join please complete a standing order form for £2.00 per month – you could be a lucky winner in 2013!

DOORWAY TO FAITH

On the front of the newsletter, we are printing excerpts from Pope Benedict XVI "Doorway to Faith". Also available from this Sunday, we are selling at £1.50 a small booklet, a journey of prayer through the Catechism of the Catholic Church, beginning on Monday 14 January day by day. You may find it useful in your family prayer and help you with the living what we believe.

THE SUNDAY OBLIGATION

"The precept of the church specifies the law of the Lord more precisely: on Sundays and other Holy Days of Obligation the faithful are bound to participate at Mass.....The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practices. For this reason the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin. Catechism of the Catholic Church.

RELIGIOUS POEM COMPETITION

United Press are holding a Religious Poem Competition and now is your last chance to enter. So if you haven't already entered, please post up to three poems headed: Religious Poem to United Press Ltd, Admail 3735, London, EC1B 1JB or enter online at <http://www.unitedpress.co.uk/submit-poetry-online/>.

FOYER OF CHARITY RETREAT

At Sion Community, Brentwood March 10 (evening) - March 16 (midday) 2013. Foyer retreats are held mainly in silence, with three talks a day covering the major aspects of Catholic faith and helping participants to deepen their life of prayer and their Christian life. For more information, contact Mgr. Keith Barltrop 020 7229 0487; St. Mary of the Angels, Moorhouse Road, London W2 5DJ; keithbarltrop@redow.org.uk

LITURGICAL FORMATION

"One with Christ in Service and Prayer". The Liturgy in the spirit of Vatican Two. Will be held on Saturday 16 February between 10.00 a.m. and 1.00 p.m. at The Cathedral Conference Centre, Brentwood. The Speaker will be Mgr. David Manson VG

Jesus travelled through Galilee and told everyone how God loved them. Jesus went to the synagogue in his home town of Nazareth. He read from the book of Isaiah that God will bring good news to the poor, give sight to the blind and set people free. Jesus told the people that he was Gods messenger who was doing this work.

CATHOLIC AND HAVE LOST TOUCH?

If you have been a non Church-going Catholic for a long time, it can be very helpful to read about contemporary Catholic beliefs and life. It may appear to you that some things have changed.
